

The Institute for American Indian Research presents

The 2nd Annual Luci Tapahonso Distinguished Indigenous Speakers Series with Dakota/Lakota Author Diane Wilson

Luci Tapahonso

Diane Wilson

Join us for an evening with Dakota/Lakota author and educator Diane Wilson! Wilson's presentation, "Seeds and Stories," explores the ways in which seeds carry stories of the seasons and the people who grew them — just as our stories carry seeds for the future we hope to create. Wilson will also discuss new her novel The Seed Keeper, and the relationship she has nurtured between writing and food sovereignty. Reception immediately following.

When: Wednesday, Nov. 1, 2023    Where: Hodgin's Hall, Bobo Room 4-6 PM

Address: 1 University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, NM

IFAIR
INSTITUTE FOR AMERICAN INDIAN
RESEARCH

NM DEPARTMENT OF
ENGLISH LANGUAGE
& LITERATURE

NM DEPARTMENT OF AMERICAN STUDIES