

The Institute for American Indian Research (IFAIR)
presents
The Poetics of Water
a poetry reading with Laura Tohe

When: March 11th, 2025

Time: 6– 8 PM

Where: Bobo Room, Hodgkin Hall

UNM Campus

Reception immediately following

Laura Tohe is Diné and Laguna and is the current Navajo Nation Poet Laureate. She is Sleepy Rock people clan born for the Bitter Water people clan and is the daughter of a Navajo Code Talker. She is Professor Emerita with Distinction from Arizona State University.

Ahéhee' (Thank you) to our sponsors!

