

The 3rd Annual Luci Tapahonso
Distinguished Indigenous Speakers Series

Keynote Speaker: Nancy Marie Mithlo, PhD

Dear America, 2002, by Tom Jones
Archival digital print with ink, Minneapolis Institute of Art

“Dear America: The Trials and Errors of Native Art’s Diplomacy”

Nancy Marie Mithlo
Photo by: Marc Hausman

The Institute of American Indian Research (IFAIR) is thrilled to announce Nancy Marie Mithlo as the keynote speaker for this year’s Luci Tapahonso Distinguished Indigenous Speaker Series. Mithlo is a Professor at UCLA in the Departments of Gender Studies and American Indian Studies and Curator-in-Residence at LACMA. She analyzes and exposes the politics of memory institutions - museums, archives, film, and fine arts. She will discuss the social production and circulation of American Indian/Indigenous arts, offering a corrective lens to the often biased and narrow reading of American Indian cultures. We hope that you will join us for this important and enlightening conversation on race and representation!

Wed., Nov. 13, 2024
from 4-6 PM
Hodgins Hall, Bobo Room
1 University of New Mexico
Albuquerque, NM

